With presentations and roundtable discussion by Aroha Mead, Rosaleen Duffy, Taghi Farvar, Gonzolo Oviedo, Harry Jonas, Leonardo Crippa, Kristen Walker, Phil Rist, Charles Tumwesigye, Robert Fletcher, Phil Franks, Leslie King, Jennifer Koinante, Ashish Kothari, Juanita Cabrera Lopez, Aroha Mead, Dhaneshree (Dani) Ndebele, Dilys Roe, and others.

An issue of critical importance in conservation, both for youth and senior professionals, is the implementation of social justice and rights in protected areas. This workshop bring together a diverse, geographically wide group of participants to spark critical dialogue on problems of implementation in protected areas, including eviction, land dispossession, livelihoods and compensation. How can we concertedly understand, share knowledge on and develop a capacity building approach to `implementing conservation justice` ?
