

Australia: Celebration of Culture and Country

Presenters:

Melissa George – Chair, Indigenous Advisory Committee to Minister for Environment; Sally Barnes – Director, National Parks Australia; Ariadne Gorring – Kimberley Land Council; and Miss Chels Marshall – Gumma Indigenous Protected Area

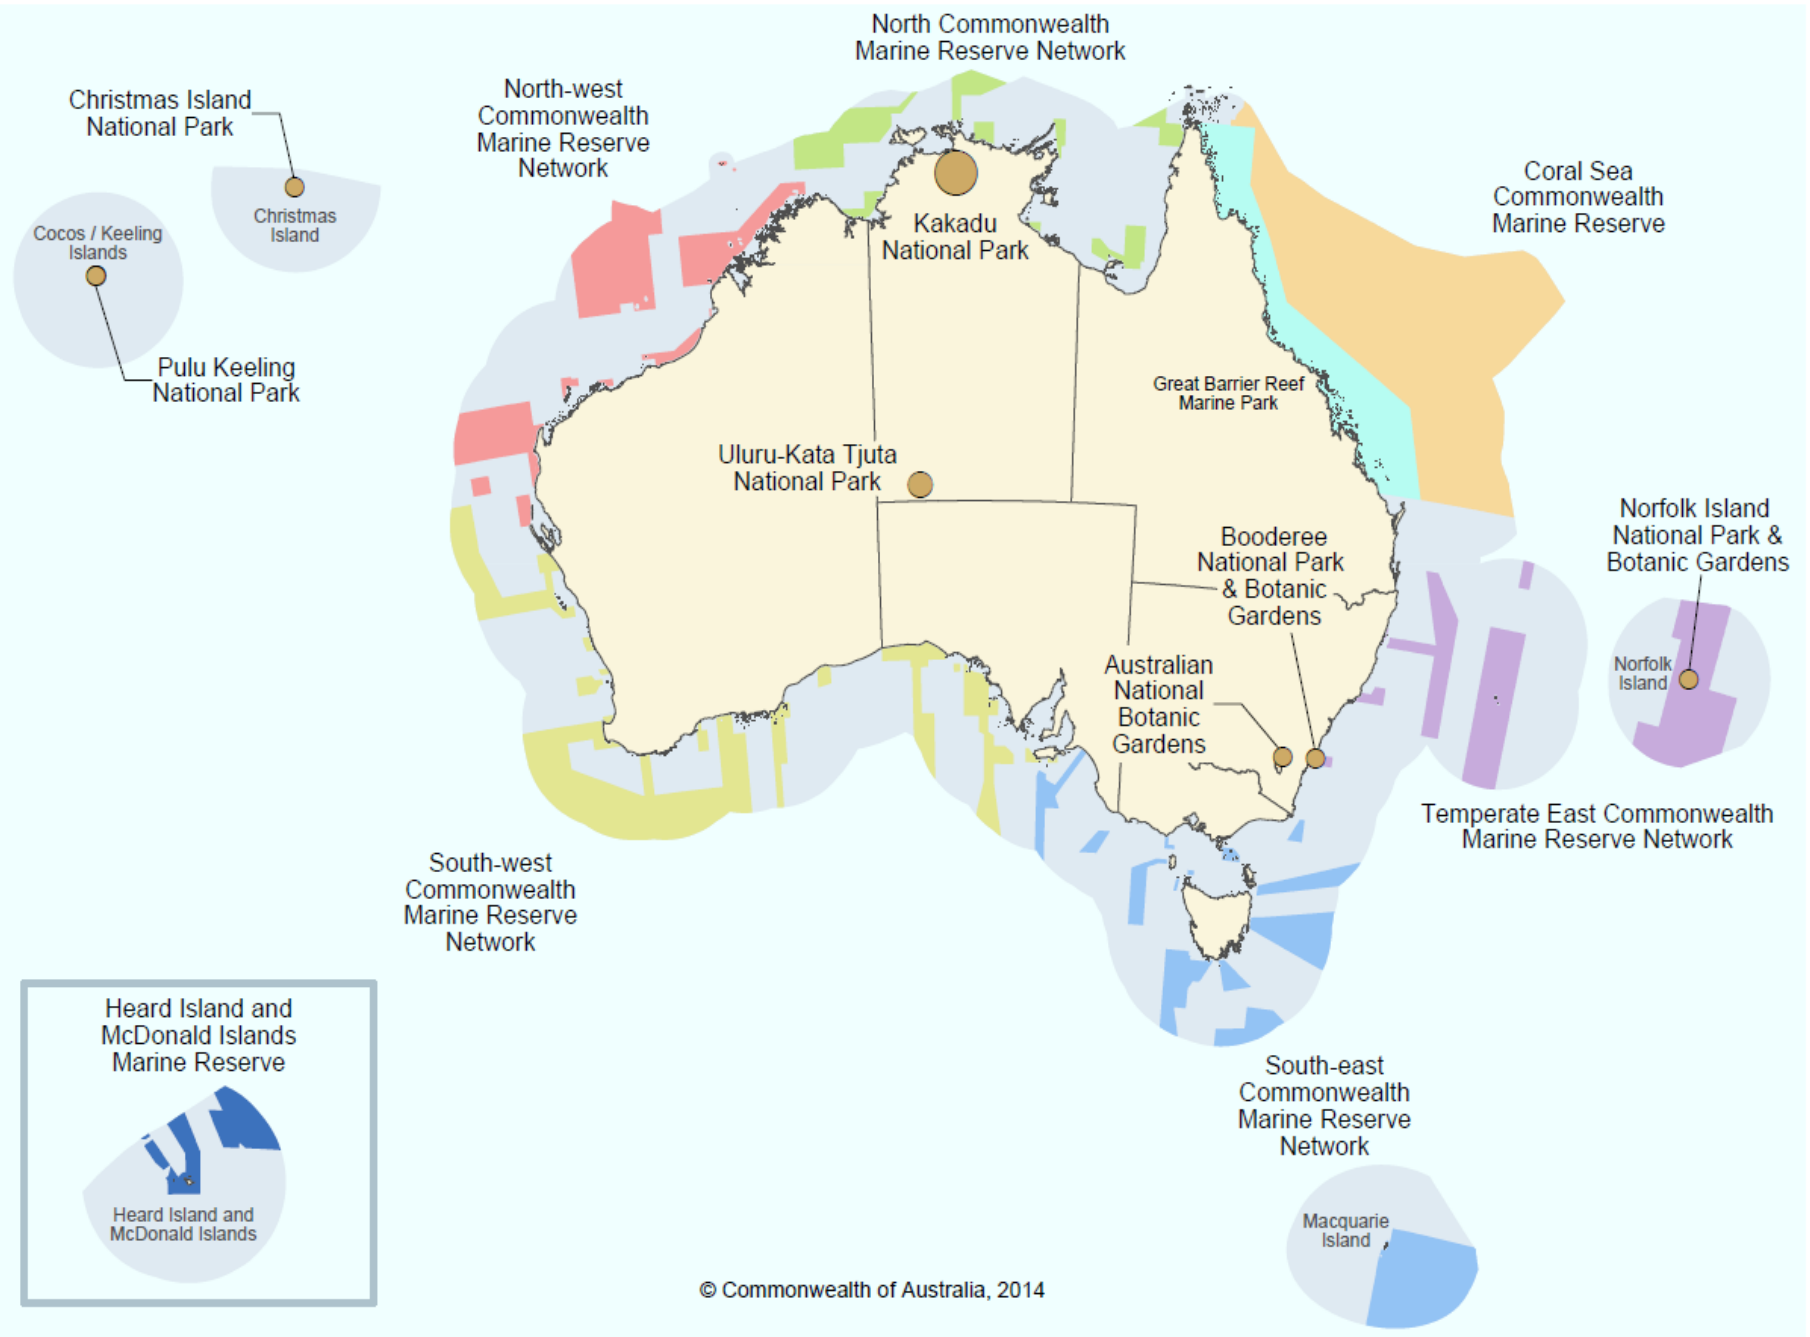

Indigenous Protected Areas

Strong Future

Healthy country, healthy people, interconnected resilient landscapes

A man in a dark green uniform shirt and shorts, wearing a cap and boots, stands with his hands on his hips, smiling at the camera.

A man wearing an orange and white high-visibility vest over a grey shirt and shorts, also wearing a cap.

A woman wearing a red and yellow high-visibility vest over a dark top, holding a long-handled tool.

A man wearing a bright yellow high-visibility vest over a dark shirt and pants, holding a shovel.

A white utility truck with a spare tire mounted on the back, license plate CA 93LV.

A green wheelbarrow filled with red soil, positioned in the foreground.

A brown wheelbarrow filled with red soil, positioned in the foreground.

A large pile of red soil, likely used for landscaping or construction.

A long, thin tool, possibly a measuring tape or level, leaning against a tree.

A blue barrel or container, partially visible on the left side of the image.

A white cooler or container, partially visible on the left side of the image.

