

Customary and Indigenous Law and Governance

1. Welcome: Gonzalo Oviedo, IUCN
2. Keynote: Grethel Aguilar, Director, IUCN Mexico, Central America and Caribbean Regional Office (ORMACC)
3. Panel with legal experts:
 - Challenges of plural governance of marine and terrestrial protected areas under customary tenure in the Pacific Island Countries: Patricia Parkinson, WCEL.
 - Examples from Colombia of legal frameworks and cases addressing community tenure and customary law: Santiago Martinez, IUCN ELC.
 - Review of Statutory and Customary Law in the Xe Champhone Ramsar site, LAO PDR: Raphael Glemet, IUCN Lao PDR Office.
 - Customary Governance in the Pacific: Roko Sau, Paramount Chief of Totoya in Lau, Fiji.
 - Customary governance and women: Florina Lopez, Indigenous Women for Biodiversity Network of Latin America, Guna people, Panama.
1. Q&A, Discussion