

STREAM SESSION #7: RESPECTING INDIGENOUS & TRADITIONAL KNOWLEDGE AND CULTURE

Policy Dialogue on: The role of traditional management systems in achieving national and international policy goals and targets

Challenges of co-management of protected areas overlapping with indigenous lands in Brazil

Lara Vasco Ferreira

Environmental analyst, Chico Mendes Institute for Biodiversity Conservation. PhD student, Federal University of Santa Catarina, Brazil

Developing a Sustainable Future for Biocultural Heritage and Biodiversity Conservation: the contribution of traditional management practices of Indigenous Australians

Professor Natalie P. Stoianoff

Director, Intellectual Property Program Chair, Indigenous Knowledge Forum University of Technology, Sydney

The IPBCCA Local Assessments: Building evidence to support the development of participatory and sustainable policies and strategies for climate change adaption and mitigation

Alejandro Argumedo

Director, Asociación ANDES, Peru

agenda

Lessons learned from the Seed Park in Stone Village, Yunnan, China

Yiching Song

Senior Researcher, Centre for Chinese Agricultural Policy, Chinese Academy of Science

DISCUSSANT

Wend Wendland

Director, Traditional Knowledge Division, World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO)

Thank you very much for your participation!

Free publications at the back of the room

For more information: <http://www.iddri.org/>

Email: claudio.chiarolla@iddri.org

Claudio Chiarolla

Research Fellow, International Governance of Biodiversity, IDDRI. Lecturer and Course Coordinator, Biodiversity Policies at the Paris School of International Affairs (PSIA), Sciences Po Paris